

SIT WELL, FEEL WELL, LOOK WELL

The WELL COLLECTION is a modern, fresh and comfortable family range of visitor and conference chairs. One seat shell fits eight different bases. By adapting the frame base, the shell, the colour and upholstery to your own preference, you easily create a customised chair that perfectly fits your environment and unique interior.

WELL COLLECTION

Comfort comes in many shapes

The chair from the WELL COLLECTION have a great quality and an excellent sitting comfort due to the clever shaped seat shell. The cavity in the in the seat and back rest matches the user's back and divides the weight proportionally. Your back gets supported ergonomically which allows you to sit comfortably in the chair for a long period of time. Therefore, no matter which frame base of the collection you choose - you can be sure about an excellent sitting comfort.

No matter which chair from the collection you choose, you can be sure you sit WELL, feel WELL and look WELL

"Because of the specific shape of this unique chair, you can sit pleasantly for a long period of time. The WELL COLLECTION is awarded with Good Industrial Design 2017 (GIO)."
